(b) the amount spent on education and health ;

(c) whether the Rajasthan Government has utilised the full allocated amount during the year 1992-93 ;

(d) if not, the reasons therefor ;

(e) the amount earmarked for removing rural unemployment in the State ; and

(f) the total number of people to get employment as a result thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (DEPARTMENT OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT) (SHRI UTTAMBHAI PATEL) : (a) The major Rural Development Programmes being implemented in the State of Rajasthan during 1993-94 were—(i) Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), (ii) Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY), (iii) Drought-prone Area Programme (DPAP), (iv) Desert Development Programme (DDP) and (v) Accelerated Rural Water Supply Programme (ARWSP). The total allocation for these programmes in the State of Rajasthan during 1993-94 was as follows :—

	Programme	Amount allocated during 1993-94 (Rs. in lakhs)	% age utilization during 1992-93
(i)	IRDP	4430.00	104.5
(ii)	JRY	14024.06*	80.7
(iii)	DPAP	771.00	123.7
(iv)	DDP	5700.00	96.0
(v)	ARWSP	6886.00	98.4

*Central share

(b) The amount spent on construction of school buildings under JRY programme during 1993-94 (upto September, 1993) was Rs. 409.51 lakhs. Regarding expenditure on health, the total allocation for major national programmes under the Ministry of Health for Rajasthan during 1993-94 was Rs. 905.81 lakhs.

(c) and (d) As may be seen from the column No. (3) of part (a), the State of Rajasthan had utilized almost all the amount allocated to the State during 1992-93 under major programmes.

(e) and (f) Apart from JRY, a second stream of JRY has been initiated which provides additional resources for generation of employment and strengthening of infrastructure in 120 selected districts in the country. In addition, an Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS) is also being implemented since October, 1993 in the rural areas in 1755 blocks in 257 districts with the aim to provide an assured employment of 100 days to the rural poor who are in need of employment and seeking for it. During 1994-95, a tentative allocation of Rs. 11413.49 lakhs under normal JRY (1st stream) and Rs. 3655.00 lakhs under JRY (2nd stream) as Central share has been made for Rajasthan. No Statewise allocations are made under EAS. The target of employment to be generated under these streams has not been finalized.

Funds Released under the Employment Assurance Scheme

4023. SYED SIBTEY RAZI : Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have released some funds for some states as the second instalment under the newly launched Employment Assurance Scheme ;

(b) if so, the details thereof, indicating the names of states with amounts released to each with background of this scheme ;

(c) whether funds under the Scheme as first instalment have been released to all States and Union Territories ;

(d) if so, the details thereof, State and Union territory-wise ;

(e) whether Government propose to release funds as second instalment to other States besides those as included in part (a) above ; and

(f) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (DEPARTMENT OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT) (SHRI RAMESHWAR THAKUR) : (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS) is being implemented in 1755 identified backward blocks of 257 districts situated in the drought prone areas, desert areas, tribal areas and hilly areas of the country where the Revamped Public Distribution System (RPDS) is in operation. The scheme aims at providing assured employment of 100 days in unskilled manual work during the lean agricultural season to the rural poor who are in need of employment and seeking it.

Expenditure under EAS is shared between Centre and State in the ratio of 80 : 20. First instalment of Central Share under EAS was released during 1993-94 to all States/UTs covered under EAS. Second instalment of Central share during 1993-94 was released to those districts which sent proposal for release of further funds after utilising 50% or more of the funds made available under first instalment. A statement giving State-wise details of Central assistance released under first and second instalment during 1993-94 is attached. (See below).

(e) and (f) Release of funds in instalments for implementation of EAS would be continued during 1994-95. Further instalments of funds will be released to the districts, as soon as they utilise at least 50% of the available funds and seek additional funds for the implementation of the programme.
